H: Who are the current members of WURM?

LL: Chuck Dukowski/bass, Ed Danke/guitar, Simon/vocals (also in Dead Hippie) and Loud Lou/drums. We plan to stay with this line-up.

H: What have you been up to?

LL: Our singles WERE OFF, I'M DEAD, TIME HAS COME TODAY are due out on SST Records and we have a single MODERN MAN on EAR MOVIE RECORDS compilation RADIO TOKYO TAPES and our single BLACK SWAN is on Mystics DESTROY LA compilation.

H: Yawn, what else?

CD We will be playing Berkely the later part of November with D.O.A. and San Francisco with SAINT VITUS and OVERKILL

H: Now that you've got all the plugs in, tell us how all this recording will be financed.

CD: The band is paying for the recording and will be on SST

H: Ed, aren't you in that infamous band-MENTORS?

ED: Yes. I used to be in POWERTRIP and also DEAD HIPPIE

H: What is different about this band?

ED This band gives me a chance to play guitar and thus get hotter than ever and I get to write music.

H: It's time to cut and paste now, but we would like to get something more soon.

"... WURM who also could use a producer. 'We're OFF' (SST) is pretty good /punk, but you can't hear any bass. 'I'm Dead' is by far the best cut here, with brutal guitar riffing and an arrangement that kicks the chorus into overdrive. Their cover of 'TIME HAS COME TODAY' lacks a strong vocal presence, and the production doesn't have the roar to justify ITS LENGTH" — BRUCE DUFF MUSIC CONNECTION OCT 27 - NOV

Oct. 29--Minutemen, Nigheist, Wurm

I came in during Wurm, my favorite band right now. Their new stuff is really good, pretty metal. Simon was a lot more animated than the last time I saw them. Everyone seemed to be totally into them, even though they didn't get to do "Time".

MNext, the Nigheist. This band is never dull. No onstage sex acts this time, but pretty close. Mugger did half the set with...uh..limited clothing. The groupies went wild, and helped Mugger beat up some guy who was giving them a hard time. Anarchy, man.

The Minutemen headlined and were excellent, as always. The stuff off the new album is really cool, really fun. D. Boone jumped around and worked up sweat and we all danced. Another great Cathay show.

Oct. 30--Patriots, Nip Drivers, Dead Hippie, Saccharine Trust

The Patriots played first. I didn't see them but they practice down the street from me and are a pretty good new band. The Nip Drivers were a little out of practice because their singers been in Europe but they still thrashed. Kurt is a rad guitarist and Mike is a young aspiring Darby. I'd never seen Dead Hippie before. Their songs were tight cohesive but lacked diversity--they were not, well, catchy. Oh well. Simon was wearing really cool make-up, though. Saccharine Trust headlined. This band is always great to watch--very original and freaky. I dig on their new stuff. I left early 'cause I was really sick.

THE DIRT

Here we go again with the latest factual misinformation on the L.A. Punk scene. Yes, BRENT LILES of SOCIAL DISTORTION, did break his arm while falling through the awning at the residence of Fullerton's legendary MUNK ROCK. S.D. will be playing soon and we are looking forward to plaster-of-paris meets slam dancer.

We notice that LA WEEKLY's column L.A. DEE DA commented on the twerp psychotic (we still refuse to name him and give him publicity that motivates such Sirhan/Sirhan types) that is responsible for other lunatic type stunts that we won't mention for the same reason. Anyways, RICHARD BOLTON has agreed to accept the case and we hope the Big Sur Academy gets on more, and be sure to say hello to VALERIE, word is that ANIMAL escaped to San Francisco.

If your not a MAU-MAU's fan skip to next paragraph as RICK ran us out of notepaper. Here goes, the singles ALL FALL DOWN and SEX GIRLS IN UNIFORM will be out on HELL COMES TO YOUR HOUSE, EMI/ENIGMA compilation. The bands own label WORLD ENTERPRISES will be a six song EP out in early 1984 entitled PSYCHO-SEXUAL with the tunes I'M PSYCHOTIC, LAUGH TRACK, SEX 'N SINGLE SNIPER, PUBERTY, DEAD OR ALIVE (what an original title) and RECTIM OF NEFRETIT. The MAU-MAU's have always done a show on November 22, JFK's death date, and will again this year. Location Clue: the 22nd is on a Tuesday and you know where everybody goes on Tuesdays. TO RICK-We found your fold-up $300.00 sunglasses and will hold 30 days before donating to the LIBERACE museum.

KELLY forgot to pick up the camera, so we don't have pictures of the Premier of ANOTHER STATE OF MIND. The video was done by PETER STUART and ADAM SMALL as they followed YOUTH BRIGADE (ex HOLLYWOOD JOE guitarist) and SOCIAL DISTORTION on their tour. STUART & SMALL own the rights and plan on setting up showings up the West Coast with YOUTH BRIGADE playing a live set after the video. Speaking of YOUTH BRIGADE, The band will be on MTV's Cutting Edge on an upcoming Sunday night doing their tune VIOLENCE, and they can be seen live on the 25th with PETER AND THE TEST TUBE BABIES. Also, that great new magazine GENERATION is being type-set and will be out shortly.

Reporter LEE VING reports on what he describes as "Unamerican Activities", namely the security at Starlight Roller Rink were going through the crowd, searching for contraband (whatever that is?) then handcuffing and calling the police. Remember that LEE first reported to us. LEE is now sporting the FEAR logo just below the band on his left arm and denies rumours of a band name change. But then we haven't mentioned to LEE that another reporter is telling us of the new chain of womens toiletries entitled -- you guessed it FEAR. Lee's personal tattooist is MARK MAHONEY at TATOO GALLERY 336-9037.
